Dear Mr. Grady:

We have reviewed the opinion rendered in this matter, and Prudential has elected to reconsider Ms. Goletz' case in light of the court's directives. At the moment, there is nothing further required from your client, but I have asked Prudential to contact you directly in the event the need arises.

In the event you have any questions regarding the above, please do not hesitate to contact me. Thank you again for your courtesy and cooperation throughout the course of this litigation.

Very truly yours,
